

| No | Descriptions                                                                                         |
|----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1  | Rockpanel board $\geq 8$ mm                                                                          |
| 2  | Air cavity                                                                                           |
| 3  | Insulation (ROCKWOOL)                                                                                |
| 4  | Aluminium rail (T-Profile)                                                                           |
| 5  | Rivet fixing                                                                                         |
| 6  | Countersunk rivet                                                                                    |
| 7  | Shadow gap                                                                                           |
| *  | FOR ALUMINIUM CONSTRUCTIONS IN AN OPEN FACADE ROCKPANEL GROUP RECOMMENDS A CAVITY DEPTH OF 40-100 mm |

Detail 2-301

Horizontal section Rockpanel cladding onto aluminium in junction to a window frame, finished with a metal sheet

